Family communication

Dear West Bloomfield Preschool Academy Families,

Thank you for sharing your child with us this year! The West Bloomfield Preschool Academy's goal is to have an open line of communication with your family.

Both classroom teacher and assistant will update your family with information regarding your child's development, learning activities, curriculum, special events, important dates, and more!

Please provide your current email address in order to be added to the classroom group. Return to your child's teacher as soon as possible to keep up to date with your child's education!
